

New Mexico
Chapter

Federal Bar Association

"Does Anyone Still Care about the Constitution?"

with

Mickey Edwards

Check-in begins at 11:00 a.m.
Lunch and CLE 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

September 24, 2015

Hotel Andaluz
125 2nd St., N.W.
Albuquerque, NM 87102

1.0 MCLE and lunch included

FBA Members, judges and court staff $55
Non-members $55 Reduced Rate!
Law students $25

A limited number of scholarships for law students are available. Law student scholarships are generously sponsored by Ted Barudin of the Barudin Law Firm and Helen Laura Lopez, Esq.

Pre-registration is preferred. RSVP to naomi.barnes@kutakrock.com Send checks to Naomi Barnes, Treasurer, 822 Agua Fria St. Unit B, Santa Fe, NM 87501. Cash, checks, and credit cards accepted at the door.

Mickey Edwards is a former member of Congress from Oklahoma and currently Vice President of the Aspen Institute and Director of the Aspen Institute's Rodel Fellowships in Public Leadership. After serving in Congress, Mr. Edwards taught at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government where he was the John Quincy Adams Lecturer in Legislative Practice and at Princeton's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs. Mr. Edwards is the author or co-author of four books, including "Reclaiming Conservatism," published in 2008 by Oxford University Press. His latest book, "The Parties Versus the People," was published by Yale University Press. He has been a regular political commentator on National Public Radio's "All Things Considered" and a weekly political columnist for The Chicago Tribune and Los Angeles Times, as well as other major newspapers.